Notice

Effective March 1, 2008, we will provide account statements electronically through e-mail to all customers. The electronic statements will contain the same information that the paper statements include. You will receive the account statements through e-mail faster than you receive your paper statements. They are official documents, so you can use them for record-keeping, taxes, and more. There is no charge for this service. In order to receive your statements through e-mail, please complete and return the Request for E-mailed Statements at the bottom of this notice.

You can always revert back to paper statements at any time by calling our customer service (408)283-1888 ext. 14.
